CSA President Ernest Logan Urges the DOE to Negotiate a New Teacher/Principal Evaluation System for Schools Receiving SIG Funding

“Today, the DOE informed CSA that it terminated its negotiations with the UFT over a new teacher evaluation system for schools receiving School Improvement Grant (SIG) funding. As a result, the DOE canceled today’s negotiations with CSA over a new Principal evaluation system. Today would have been only the third negotiation session between DOE and CSA.

“It was critical that today’s negotiations took place as the State Education Commissioner set a deadline of December 31, 2011 for the parties to come to an agreement. Failure to complete these negotiations by the deadline places the SIG funding at risk and we urge the DOE to return to the negotiation table with the UFT and CSA for the benefit of students.”
